Dear Member,

Summer CEO

The focus of this summer's CEO conference is tackling today's hard questions, including a new way of pricing your ESAs programs and services, scenario planning, and customer service. We will also take a look at some ESA collaborations around the country that are enabling ESAs to offer more to their member LEAs. To date, 85 people are registered. Sign up here.

Annual Conference

The call for presentation proposals deadline is a week away - May 8, 2013 - please consider submitting a proposal for consideration. We are seeking governance proposals in particular. These would be board/governance related presentations. Please consider submitting a breakout session presentation proposal by going to our website and fill out this online form.

AESA Executives in Residence

Are you considering a position as an ESA CEO? Do you have key staff that you would like to prepare for an ESA CEO position? Would you like to learn about the administrative operations of other ESAs across the country? If you answered yes to any of these questions, please consider the AESA Executives in Residence Program. This program, now soliciting its tenth cohort, has provided learning opportunities for many individuals who now are in ESA CEO positions. The application period for the 2013-2014 Executives in Residence Program is now open! Hurry! Applications are due by June 1, 2013.
