Dear Member,

The Solution Center - Member Question - "A Little Help Here?"

The Ohio Valley Educational Cooperative in Kentucky, one of eight cooperatives or area service agencies, is interested in receiving information on quality or exemplary models in the area of technology. Specifically, looking at how that technology is delivered internally to cooperative staff and to member districts served by the educational cooperative, both professional learning and also in maintenance of the technology. What model do you have in place for delivering quality services? How do you evaluate that service? If you would have something to share, please send it via email here. Thanks so much!

Professional Development Opportunities - Conference Registrations Open

Last week the AESA Annual Conference registration opened. This year's conference is "Navigating the Waters of Opportunity" and is located in San Diego from December 3-6th, 2014. There will be three great keynote speakers and nearly 80 breakout sessions put on by folks just like you from around the country sharing the best of what they've learned and implemented. Register here.

Summer Leadership Conference in Santa Fe, NM is nearly full - July 14-17th. This is your chance to get in on some great learning and networking. See the details and register here.

Executive in Residence - The Year Long Professional Development Program for Aspiring CEOs

Now is the time to sign up for this incredible opportunity to really learn leadership in regional organizations. Of the many people who have already experienced this program - here is what a couple of them have to say - "This was the very best learning situation for someone wanting to move into a higher leadership position." "I'm so glad to have the time to get involved. It was rewarding for me personally and professionally." "What I learned allowed me to apply it immediately within my own agency."

Consider being part of this wonderful chance to learn, grow, and build your professional network - check it out here.
