EXECUTIVE OPPORTUNITY

AN INVITATION TO APPLY FOR THE POSITION OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS TWO RIVERS SUPERVISORY UNION, VERMONT

The Two Rivers Supervisory Union (TRSU) invites dynamic, future-focused candidates to apply for the position of Superintendent of Schools.

Located in the scenic Okemo Valley in Vermont, TRSU is comprised of six communities: Ludlow, Mount Holly, Chester, Cavendish, Andover, and Baltimore, which account for a total population of 8,574 residents. With proximity to Boston, Portland, Manchester, and Albany, TRSU is nestled in a valley offering year-round recreations with miles of hiking and bike trails for spring and summer enjoyment, brilliant fall foliage, and premier skiing at Okemo Ski Resort. Complimenting the natural beauty, the valley is also home to 1888 Black River Academy Museum, one of the first coed schools for its time, and attended by our 30th President Calvin Coolidge. Other attractions include factory tours displaying the craftsmanship of renowned Vermont hardwood furniture, shops and galleries in the villages, and ample dining opportunities.

The Two Rivers Supervisory Union serves 872 PreK-12 students and comprises two school districts: Green Mountain Unified School District and Ludlow Mount Holly Unified Union School District. TRSU governs the administrative functions of the schools, including Transportation, Special Education, Technology and Afterschool programs with an FY 23-24 operating budget of $9,588,236. TRSU is led by a six-member board, composed of three board members from both the Green Mountain Unified School District Board (representing the towns of Andover, Baltimore, Cavendish, and Chester with 11 total members; operating budget for FY 23-24 is $15,837,173) and the Ludlow Mount Holly Unified Union School District Board (representing the towns of Ludlow and Mount Holly with 8 total members; operating budget for FY 23-24 is $7,668,103).

Two Rivers Supervisory Union's Vision: Students and adults will collaborate, think critically, acquire and apply knowledge and solve problems creatively' demonstrates a district-wide commitment to all stakeholders.
